MOULTRIE COUNTY JAIL
2012 INSPECTION REPORT

Criminal Justice Specialist Brad Besson inspected the Moultrie County Jail on November 14, 2012. Entrance and exit interviews were conducted with Jail Administrator Jodi Trussell.

IMPROVEMENTS SINCE LAST INSPECTION

1. A new Jail Administrator has been appointed. Deputy Jodi Trussell was appointed Acting Jail Administrator November 1, 2012.
2. Each new staff member is now required to be trained in the dispatch area and jail area for one month each before being "certified".
3. A random daily search of individual detention rooms has begun. Each cell block area is now searched daily as well.
4. A new jail suicide training disc has been issued by the health care provider. All security staff must view and sign off on the training annually.
5. Two new commercial type washing machines have been purchased and installed.
6. A contract has been signed with the Cook County Department of Corrections to house up to 25 detainees per day.
